Obligations register

Generated 12 November 2026 by aipolicytracker.org from the applicability check · Markets: India, Nepal

6 recorded duties screened as overlapping these answers, 4 of them legal requirements. Each cites its source reference and links to its record; the record links to the official text.

Duty	Instrument	Jurisdiction	Binding	Reference	Evidence a reviewer expects	Owner / status
Significant Data Fiduciaries must appoint a DPO and run impact assessments and audits	India DPDP Act	India	Legal requirement	Section 10	Data protection impact assessment
Implement reasonable security safeguards and notify breaches	India DPDP Act	India	Legal requirement	Section 8(5) and 8(6); DPDP Rules on breach intimation	Breach notification procedure
Process personal data only with valid consent or a legitimate use, after notice	India DPDP Act	India	Legal requirement	Sections 4 to 7	Consent records and notices
Collect and use personal information only with consent and for the stated purpose	Nepal Privacy Act 2075	Nepal	Legal requirement	Chapter on collection and protection of personal information (reviewer to cite sections)	Consent and purpose records
Adopt the guiding principles and risk-based governance (voluntary)	India AI Governance Guidelines	India	Voluntary	Guiding principles and recommendations sections	Principles alignment statement

Duty	Instrument	Jurisdiction	Binding	Reference	Evidence a reviewer expects	Owner / status
Government bodies to promote ethical, responsible and inclusive AI (policy commitment)	Nepal National AI Policy	Nepal	Voluntary	Policy objectives and strategies (to be confirmed against the official text)

An educational screen over recorded scope: the duties whose recorded actors, use cases and sectors overlap the answers. It is not a determination that any duty applies, and nothing here is legal advice. Nothing about you is stored; the answers live in the address of the page.